

Drive Unit for Forklifts

Forklift Drive Unit - As a substitute for a transmission, a hydraulic pump is driven by the lift truck motor. Hydraulic power from the pump is supplied to hydraulic drive motors that are affixed to the drive wheels to be able to provide power to the lift truck.