

Terex Parts

Terex Part - Terex Forklifts takes great delight in developing quality equipment that helps upgrade their customers' performance while standing by their goal to offer a cost effective yet consistent product line. Through several divestures and acquisitions planned to expand the product offering, Terex has a short time ago expanded dramatically. They have improved their geographic coverage to enable them to supply quality standards and value for their broad consumer base.

Remaining a aggressive player in the industrialized equipment sector, Terex is building a franchise under the Terex brand name. The business is incorporating their previous brand names for some of their components in conjunction operations the Terex brand for a smooth transition process. Currently, Terex products are principally marketed under the Terex brand name. Some of the following historic name brands and transitional names include: ATC, Amida, American Truck Company, American, Advance, Bartell, Benford, Bendini, Bid-Well, CMI, CMI-Cifali, CMI Johnson-Ross, Cedarapids, Canica, Comedil, Demag, ELJay, Franna, Fermac, Finlay, Fuchs, Genie, Hi-Ranger, Jaques, Load King, Morrison, O&K, Peiner, PPM, Powerscreen, Pegson, Reedrill, Schaeff, Simplicity, Standard Havens, Tatra, TerexLift, Telelect and Unit Rig.

Terex has had a steady evolution cycle. In 1995 Terex acquired PPM Cranes, in 1996, then Terex divested Clark Material Handling. In 1997 Terex acquires Telelect and Simon-RO. BPI Handlers in Baraga, Michigan is also acquired this same year.

Acquiring O&K Mining and Payhauler in 1998, enabled Terex to mature their mining operations. The same year their crane offering expanded their operations significantly with the acquisitions of Gru Comedil, TerexLift, American Crane and Peiner. A Light Construction business soon followed in 1999 when Terex acquired Amida, Bartell and Benford. They soon became a leader within the crushing and screening industry by purchasing Cedarapids, Powerscreen, BL Pegson, Re-Tech, and Finlay. Franna, Kooi and Princeton crane manufacturers were also added to Terex in 1999.

By purchasing Fermac, a dedicated producer of tractor loader backhoes, in the year 2000, Terex expanded into the Compact Equipment industry. Their Light Construction business continued to expand business with the acquisition of Coleman Engineering. This same year, Terex divested Moffett, Kooi and Princeton.

Terex beefed up its Roadbuilding division in 2001, operations with the purchases of Bid-well, Load King, CMI, Jaques and Atlas.

A couple of of the acquisitions that took place in 2002 made it easier for Terex to develop into a leader in their respective categories. Advance Mixer helped thrust Terex into the concrete mixing market, while Demag helped Terex Cranes become a leader in the crane market. Acquiring German manufacturers Fuchs and Schaeff positioned Terex in a top position in the Compact Equipment class. Genie became a principal manufacturer of Aerial Work Platforms. This busy year was completed operations with the acquisitions of EPAC and Pacific Utility, which offered company-owned circulation for Terex Utilities.

A company called Tatra was purchased in 2003. This company created heavy duty vehicles for military and off-road commercial functions. Buying Combatel and Commercial Body the same year allowed Terex to continue to expand its company-owned Terex Utilities distribution.

In 2004, Terex acquired Reedrill, a manufacturer of surface drilling equipment for use within the construction, utility and mining industries. Noble CE, which was known as Terex Mexico was also purchased this year. They manufacture high capacity surface mining trucks and also manufacture several components for other Terex businesses.
